Eligibility

To be eligible for the Hall of Fame, a candidate shall have made significant contributions to the promotional products industry and to his or her community as outlined on the nomination form. The candidate may be living or deceased.

Current members of the PPAI Board of Directors and the Hall of Fame Advisory Group are not eligible. If a candidate has served on the Board, he or she must be off four years before being eligible as a Hall of Fame nominee.

At the time of nomination, the nominator should not be in the same company as the candidate; there shall have been a period of four years since the two were with the same company.

Procedure for Nomination and Election

Nominations for the Hall of Fame shall be by the Association membership. All Association members are eligible to submit a nomination. Nomination forms may be obtained by contacting the Association.

Nominations shall be screened by the Association staff to eliminate ineligible individuals. The nominations shall subsequently be forwarded to the PPAI Hall of Fame Advisory Group to select and send to the Board of Directors a slate of candidates. No more than half of the candidates may be posthumous nominations. Election to the Hall of Fame shall be by ballot vote of the Board of Directors. Only "no" votes will be cast by the Board of Directors. Seven negative votes will be considered a rejection of the nominee and that person will not be inducted into the Hall of Fame. Those candidates who are selected by the Hall of Fame Advisory Group to go before the Board, but who are not inducted, will automatically be reconsidered for the next two years (a total of three years) by the Hall of Fame Advisory Group. After that period of time, if the individual has not been inducted, he or she must be nominated again by a member before being reconsidered.

Induction

Candidates accepted for Hall of Fame recognition will be inducted at the Awards presentation ceremony at The PPAI Expo in January.
